Capitalism with Morals. If our citizens were more moralistic, then the problems of capitalism wouldn't exist. If more rich people practiced less greed and more charity and humility, and if all people had the "Protestant work ethic" that America was founded on, we wouldn't have the problems that face capitalism today.

In response to the Qatar race being added to the F1 calendar, Vettel said he has concerns with the direction the sport is heading. "I think the trouble is that ultimately a sport, and it's the same as a country, is governed by individual people," he told Motorsport.com. "Individual people have individual opinions, and backgrounds, whatever, so it is of course difficult.
